

Forest City School Notes.
Miss Elizabeth Beeler, teacher of the 7th and 8th grades, returned from Evanston, Illinois, Monday evening. Miss Beeler spent Thanksgiving with Miss Marjorie Fitzmaurice, who is a student at Northwestern, and while there she made a short visit in Chicago.

Cocher Conner accompanied the Oregon Girls' Basketball team to Tarkio Friday evening. Sawhill, of Tarkio, refereed the first half of the game and Conner finished the game. On his return, he remarked that it is no wonder that Tarkio always wins their games, because the entire town supports their school. No team nor referee ever received finer treatment than was accorded the visitors Friday evening, according to Mr. Conner's report.

Rev. Thompson, presiding elder of the St. Joseph district, visited the school Monday morning. A special assembly was called at 10:30 in order that the students might have an opportunity to hear Rev. Thompson. "Be more concerned with the thing you are doing than what folks think of how you are doing it," was the keynote of the talk.

Mr. J. A. Koonitz, a former superintendent of schools in Missouri, spent most of the day Monday visiting the school in the interest of the Keystone View Company. A demonstration of the visualized and vitalized method of instruction was given and the worth of the method easily proven. An order was placed for a stereopticon lantern, six stereoscopes, 600 stereographs and one stereograph cabinet, which are to be paid for with proceeds of various entertainments and the work-day to be given under the auspices of the school.

The following extract from a letter written by State Superintendent Sam A. Baker speaks for the merit of the plan:
"By using these sets, the work of the elementary and high school courses may be visualized and vitalized. Instruction through the eye is found to be more lasting and when a pupil has seen, by the use of these stereographs, the things he studies in the books, he has a more permanent knowledge than he would have otherwise. I am free to say that a set of such stereographs and lantern slides should be in every school in the state."

We are proud of the fact that our school is the first in Holt county to purchase this equipment, although a number of the larger schools over the state own one or more of these sets.

A local all-star quintet and the high school team played a game of basketball in the city hall Monday night. As a whole, the game was slow, but John Birmingham, forward, on the all-star team, was the individual star.

At the assembly last week, Rev. Stratton conducted the devotional service and made a short talk on the religion of McKinley, one of a series of talks on the religion of the three presidents.

martyred presidents. Mr. Conner talked on the subject, "Power Means Progress." The truth of the statement was proven by a number of well-chosen illustrations.

The Metropolitan program which was given in the assembly room of the high school last Friday evening was unusually well prepared, and well received by the audience.

December 12th is the date decided upon for the high school play. A good three-act comedy-drama, "Deacon Dubbs," has been chosen and the cast have been doing some hard work the past two weeks. Reserved seats will be on sale next week. Proceeds of the play will be used for the best interests of the school.

Monarch.

—The box supper was a decided success here, last Saturday night. $44.28 was cleared. Miss Vada Smith was the most popular girl. Kate Meade's box was knocked off for $20. The proceeds will go to pay the preacher.

—Miss Esther Elliott visited at the Elmer Allen home, Sunday.

—Estel Polsgrove was visiting Roxy Chilcoat, Sunday.

—Miss Agnes Allen and Mr. Harry Ball visited at the John Stephenson home, near Oregon, Sunday. They said they enjoyed themselves.

—School has greatly diminished since the snow. Don't get scared yet, the worst is yet to come.

—Thelma and Kathleen Taylor visited Gertrude Hughes, Sunday.

—Miss Nellie Black was in Craig, a few days last week.

—Miss Agnes Allen, our teacher, visited Tuesday night with Gertrude Hughes.

—Not a very large crowd attended Sunday school, Sunday. It is kind of lagging now. People, don't let it stop, all together.

CLIFFORD.

A Great Time.

On Thanksgiving evening and night, Nov. 27, 1919, a great time was had at the home of Elliott Kurtz and wife, of the Woodville district, the occasion being the completion of his fine new barn, Wm. Klinepeter, contractor and builder. Guess we had better call it a "barn party." It was given in honor of Charles Kurtz, of Buffalo, Wyo., who has been here for several weeks, the guest of his many relatives, and who left Tuesday of this week for his home. Neighbors to the number of 75 gathered in and all repaired to the barn, where lanterns and various lights had been arranged so all could see. The big crowd sang, indulged in games, etc., until a late hour, when all were invited into the home, where hot lunch, and plenty of it, was served to all. All report a grand time, and at a late hour left for their various homes, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Kurtz the compliments of the season, and that they would have a "barn party" at least once a year.

O. E. S.

A stated meeting of Oregon Chapter, O. E. S., will be held in Masonic hall, Tuesday evening, Dec. 9th, beginning promptly at 7:30. This is the annual business meeting, reports of the year's work will be given and officers elected for the new year.
